INSTITUTE FOR ADVANCED STUDY

PRINCETON, NEW JERSEY

Founded 1930 by Mr. Louis Bamberger and Mrs. Felix Fuld, and endowed for post-doctoral research in the fields of mathematics and mathematical physics, and historical studies.

President of the Corporation: LEWIS L. STRAUSS.
Chairman of Board of Trustees: SAMUEL D. LEIDESDORF.
Director: ROBERT OPPENHEIMER.
Secretary: IRA A. SCHUR.
Librarian: JUDITH E. SACHS.

The library contains 50,000 volumes.

Permanent Members 30; about 100 temporary memberships are offered annually.

Publications (jointly with Princeton University): Annals of Mathematics, Annals of Mathematics Studies, Princeton Mathematical Series.

YALE UNIVERSITY

NEW HAVEN, CONNECTICUT

Founded in 1701, named Yale College in 1718. Transition to University began in 1810 with the founding of the Medical Institution. In 1861 the Graduate School granted the first Ph.D. degree conferred in America.

Yale College (Liberal Arts and Sciences) is the Undergraduate School. Freshmen live on the Old Campus; the senior undergraduates live in the undergraduate residential colleges. There is the Graduate School, in which instruction in science is given by the Faculty of the Sheffield Scientific School, and there are the professional Schools of Divinity, Engineering, Drama, Art and Architecture, Forestry, Law, Medicine, Music and Nursing.

CLARKSON COLLEGE OF TECHNOLOGY

POTSDAM, NEW YORK

Founded 1896

President: WILLIAM LOUIS WHITSON, B.S., M.A., PH.D.
Registrar: FREDERICK ALLEN RAMSDELL, B.S., M.S.
Business Manager and Treasurer: DONALD FREDERICK MCINTYRE, B.M.E.
Librarian: CHARLES PENROSE, A.B., LL.B., A.B. IN L.S.

The library contains 55,000 volumes.
Number of teachers: 106, including 27 professors.
Number of students: 1,626.
Publications: Clarkson Integrator, Clarksonian, Clarkson Comment.

DEANS:

Students: F. GORDON LINDSEY, B.S., M.ED.

DETROIT INSTITUTE OF TECHNOLOGY

131 EAST ADAMS, DETROIT 26, MICHIGAN

Founded 1891

President: DEWEY F. BARICH.
Vice-President for Academic Affairs: Dr. A. T. LIU.
Dean of Student Affairs and Admissions: JAMES S. YOUNG.
Vice-President for Development: C. F. BRODERSEN.
Business Manager: LOUIS A. RUBINO.
Number of teachers: 114.
Number of students: 1,959 men, 266 women, total 2,225.

DEANS:

Arts and Sciences: Dr. M. PATERSON.
Business Administration: JAMES V. STONEMAN.
Engineering: A. T. LIU.

LIBRARIES

Biblioteca Apostolica Vaticana (Vatican Apostolic Library): Over the centuries, the Papal Library was several times dispersed and reconstructed; the present library was founded by Pope Nicholas V about the middle of the 15th century; at his death the Library contained 1,209 codices (414 Greek, 795 Latin); at the present time it contains some 60,000 MSS., 100,000 engravings, 5,000 incunabula, and 900,000 other volumes; among famous collections which have helped to build up the Library are those of the Dukes of Urbino (1657), of Queen Christina of Sweden (1690), of the Florentine Marquis Capponi (1745), of Barberini (1902), of Chigi (1923), and the Borghese collection, which included many items housed in the Papal Library at Avignon; the Sistine Chapel collection is of the greatest importance to historians of music; among the many rare and precious MSS. in the Library are a Greek Bible of the 4th century, Vergils of the 4th and 6th centuries, a 4th-5th-century palimpsest of Cicero's Republic, autographs of St. Thomas Aquinas, Tasso, Petrarch, Boccaccio, Poliziano, Michaelangelo, and Luther; Cardinal Protector EUGENE TISSERANT; Prefect Fr. ALPHONSE RAES; Vice-Prefect Can. ARNOLD VAN LANTSCHOOT.

The Museo Sacro (f. 1745); the Museo Profano (f. 1767; Hon. Conservator Dom GUIDO FERRARI), and the Gabinetto Numismatico (f. 1738; Hon. Conservator Dr. LUIGI MICHELINI-TOCCI), now form part of the Library.

Archivio Segreto Vaticano (Papal Archives): estab. by Pope Paul V in 1611; opened to students in 1880; publ. (jointly with Vatican Library) Studi e Testi pubblicati per cura degli Scrittori della Biblioteca Vaticana e degli Archivisti dell' Archivio Vaticano; Archivist Cardinal EUGÈNE TISSERANT; Prefect MARTINO GIUSTI; Vice-Prefect HERMANN HOBERG.

In addition to these two important libraries there is a library attached to each of the Papal Colleges and Seminaries.

MUSEUMS

Director-General of the Pontifical Monuments, Museums and Galleries: Count Dr. PAOLO DALLA TORRE DI SANGUINETTO (Acting).

Treasurer: Gr. Uff. Rag. GIUSEPPE CARLOTTI.

The Vatican Museums and Galleries contain the following sections:

Musei di Scultura: Museo Pio-Clementino; f. by Pope Clement XIV (1770-1774), and enlarged by his successor, Pius VI; exhibits include the Apollo of Belvedere, the Apoxyomenos by Lysippus, the Laocoon Group, the Nile and portraits of Homer, Pericles, Socrates and Plato; the original Vatican Museum was begun with the Apollo—already in possession of Pope Julius II when he was still a Cardinal, at the end of the 15th century—and the Laocoon Group, found in 1506.

Museo Chiaramonti and Braccio Nuovo: f. by Pope Pius VII at the beginning of the 19th century, to house the many new findings excavated in that period; exhibits include the statues of Demosthenes and of the Augustus "of Primaporta".

Museo Gregoriano Etrusco: inaugurated by Pope Gregory XVI in 1838; contains Tomba Regolini Galassi, bronze vases, terra-cotta and sepulchral urns.

Museo Gregoriano Egizio: inaugurated by Pope Gregory XVI in 1839; contains Egyptian papyri, mummies, sarcophagi and statues, including statue of Queen Tua (1300 B.C.).

Cappelle, Sale e Gallerie Affrescate: Cappella del Beato Angelico (o di Niccolò V, 1448-1450); Cappella Sistina constructed for Sixtus IV (1471-1484); Cappella di Urbano VIII (1625-1644); Le Stanze e Le Logge di Raffaello, etc.

Pinacoteca Vaticana: inaugurated by Pope Pius XI in 1932; includes paintings by Fra Angelico, Raphael, Leonardo Da Vinci, Titian and Caravaggio, and the Raphael Tapestries.

General Director: Count Dr. PAOLO DALLE TORRE DI SANGUINETTO; Inspector for the Medieval and Modern Section Dr. DEOCLECIO REDIG DE CAMPOS.

The Lateran Museums, Piazza San Giovanni in Laterano, Rome, consist of:

Museo Profano Lateranense: inaugurated 1844; includes statue of Sophocles found at Terracina; Curator: Prof. ENRICO JOSI.

(University of Ljubljana)

LJUBLJANA
Telephone: 21-127

Founded 1595, reconstituted 1809-10, reopened 1919, re-organised 1954.

Rector: Prof. MAKSO SNUDERL.
Secretary: EDO GRGIĆ.

Number of professors: 214.
Number of students: 8,617.

DEANS:

Faculty of Philosophy: Prof. VLADIMIR SCHMIDT.
Faculty of Law: Prof. ALEKSANDER BAJT.
Faculty of Economics: Prof. IVAN LAVRAČ.
Faculty of Natural Sciences and Technology: Prof. VINKO KULJIŠ.
Faculty of Architecture, Civil Engineering and Geodesy: Prof. JANKO SKETELJ.
Faculty of Electrical Engineering: Prof. MARJAN PLAPER.
Faculty of Mechanical Engineering: Prof. ALBERT STRUNA.
Faculty of Bio-technology: Prof. ZDRAVKO TURK.
Faculty of Medicine: Prof. JANEZ MILČINSKI.

PROFESSORS;

Faculty of Philosophy:

THE INTERNATIONAL WHO'S WHO 1963-64

THIS annual work of reference, first published in 1935, provides essential biographical details about today's leading personalities in important spheres of activity in every country of the world. The current edition contains hundreds of new entries and includes many of people prominent in countries where no national "Who's Who" is published. An indispensable book for everyone concerned with international affairs.

"One of the best and most useful of reference books. Its range is astonishing and it grows in fullness each year."—THE GUARDIAN, Manchester.

THE EUROPA YEAR BOOK 1964

Volume I. Part One: International Organisations.
Part Two: Europe, including the U.S.S.R. and Turkey.

Volume II. Africa, the Americas, Asia, Australasia.

THIS two-volume world survey and directory provides essential information about every country in the world, including economic and statistical data, as well as details of the constitution, government, political parties, legal system, religion and education. There is also a directory section for each country, listing newspapers and periodicals, publishers, radio and television, banks, insurance companies, chambers of commerce, trade associations and unions, transport companies, atomic energy commissions, and so on. International organisations throughout the world are listed and described in Volume I.

"A work of outstanding value and interest."—QUARTERLY REVIEW, London.

Vol. I: 1,000 pages (approx.)
Vol. II: 1,225 pages (approx.)
